HC refuses to stop Vedanta's deductions in oilfield dispute

Dismisses appeal to restrain firm from deducting govt share

BHAVINI MISHRA New Delhi, 11 July

The Delhi High Court on Friday dismissed an appeal by the Centre to restrain Vedanta from deducting payments from its (the Centre's) revenue share from the Mangala, Bhagyam, and Aishwariya oil and gas fields in Rajasthan.

Justice Jasmeet Singh, in his interim order, rejected the government's request to stop Vedanta from implementing a 2023 arbitral award.

So far, Vedanta has adjusted about ₹3,235 crore from the provisional revenue estimates for the second, third and fourth quarters of 2023-24 and is yet to adjust another ₹1,347 crore.

Vedanta can now proceed with its deductions until the final payout is quantified by the arbitration tribunal.

"For the foregoing reasons, this Court, within the limited jurisdiction as noted above, is not to re-evaluate the merits or alter the view taken by the AT (arbitration tribunal), particularly when the AT has passed a well-reasoned order and reserved the appellant's entitlement to seek re-adjustment ... I find no reason to interfere with the impugned order. Hence, the instant appeal is devoid of merit and is accordingly dismissed," the Delhi High Court stated in its interim order.

The government had sought to restrain Vedanta from implementing the 2023 arbitral award by making adjustments in the provisional estimates, pending the quantification of liabilities in the second, third and fourth quarters of FY24 (over $300 million).

The dispute was regarding the 1995 production-sharing contract among the Union government, Shell (later acquired by Vedanta), and the Oil and Natural Gas Corporation for the Rajasthan oil and gas blocks.

The original licence for oil and gas exploration and production in the Barmer block expired on May 14, 2020. The government then offered a 10-year extension but sought a higher share of oil and gas, along with the resolution of a ₹5,651 crore dispute over cost recovery.

The government's claim revolved around the reallocation of common costs among different fields in the block and the disallowance of pipeline-related expenses. The Directorate General of Hydrocarbons also raised audit objections for FY17 and FY18.Vedanta disputed these findings and initiated arbitration.

In August 2023, the tribunal issued a final partial award, largely upholding Vedanta's case by dismissing most of the government's claims, but did not set the exact payment amounts. The award was partially modified in December 2023.

The modified award was in favour of Vedanta and rejected the government's demands for a higher payout after a disallowing cost of ₹9,545 crore and reallocating certain common costs, including pipeline expenses.

The government challenged this award in the Delhi High Court, arguing that it conflicted with India's public policy and legal principles.

Will talk to environment ministry on HtBt cotton issue: Chouhan

SANJEEB MUKHERJEE New Delhi, 11 July

Union Agriculture Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan on Fridav said he will raise the issue of herbicide tolerant BT cotton (HtBt) with the environment ministry as there are reports of farmers growing them illegally.

"We will also talk about Htbt cotton with the environment ministry. It is being said that seeds are coming in secretly and illegally. We will work seriously on this too," Chouhan said while addressing high-level stakeholders meeting on cotton today in Coimbatore.

Chouhan's statement came amid reports that a highpowered panel appointed by the Genetic Engineering Appraisal Committee (GEAC) has given a favourable recommendation on commercialisation of HtBt cotton after analysing three years' bio-safety data.

High temperatures, receding ice Shivling raise fears of Amarnath Yatra washout

"We had to reduce the cost of our tour packages by 6-7 per cent to encourage people to come to the Yatra, but the helicopter services being discontinued was a big blow," Nagar added.

The highest-ever troop deployment - 581 companies of Central Armed Police Forces — along with anti-drone and air defence systems have been mobilised to ensure security throughout the route.

Pilgrims are now reaching the shrine either on foot or via ponies and palanquins, using the traditional 48-km Pahalgam route or the shorter but steeper 14-km Baltal track. The majority have preferred the longer Pahalgam route.

On Thursday morning, over 6,400 pilgrims in the tenth batch departed under multi-tier security, escorted by the CRPF and J&K Police.

Despite the challenges, optimism persists.

"The sentiment is a mix of optimism and caution. With over 400,000 registrations already in and an expected footfall of around 500,000, the faith and enthusiasm of devotees remains strong. Despite a shorter Yatra window, bookings have been picking up steadily, and we've seen hotel occupancy rise from 19-20 per cent in early June to nearly 40 per cent as the Yatra starts," said Rikant Pittie, cofounder and chief executive officer at the platform.

However, at Shrine Yatra, another agency, which had organised over 200 trips to the cave temple last year, all 150 helicopter bookings they had received were cancelled due to services being disrupted.

"We also did not have any traveller on the pony, because it needs a separate registration, which many people didn't have as they were banking on the helicopter services," said Raunak Chauhan, managing director, Shrine Yatra.

The early melting of the Shivling has historically influenced turnout. In 2022, it lasted only 28 days, while in 2023, it went up to 47 days. This year, it melted in just about a week.

"Only staunch devotees are coming now," said Riyaz Ahmed of Ponypalki, a ponv rental service. "We've taken around 200 pilgrims on ponies, 120 in palanquins, and 850 on foot. But the numbers are lower than last year. Even ponywallahs from nearby villages didn't show up.

In previous years, the Yatra spanned 62 days (2023) and 52 days (2024). This year's 38-day schedule makes it one of the shortest in recent history.

The Amarnath Shrine Board had received 9,000 registrations in the first ten (With inputs from Archis Mohan) days of the advance registrations opening on April 14, sources in the Board told Business Standard earlier. Pilgrim numbers to the temple have risen steadily over the years.

According to the tourism department of J&K, as stated in the Economic Survey of the Union Territory (UT), the region saw 510,000 lakh devotees on the Amarnath Yatra in 2024 - an all-time high of ten years. In 2023, 445,000 lakh devotees visited the temple.

Ever since the April 22 terror attack, the UT's tourism industry has taken a hit. Chief Minister Omar Abdullah has taken to visit other states, including West Bengal, to assure people to visit J&K in greater numbers.
